1. On 7 May 1954, two officers of the 2d Inf Regt at Prenzlau had to report to the MII in civilian clothes. They were allegedly to be detached to Poland either for training or participation in maneuvers.

2. [redacted] a KVP engineer unit in Brandenburg
[redacted] was detached to the USSR for two years' training together 25X1 with about 60 other KVP officers of all branches of service. The the departure from Leipzig to Moscow was scheduled for late May. In Moscow the officers were allegedly to be assigned to various schools.

Comment. It is considered possible that KVP officers are rotated to special training courses in the USSR although training of KVP officers in Volk, USSR, generally discontinued after the establishment of the KVP academy in Dresden.
